

Wooden Boxed Brush Sets

Some of our favorite artists agreed to put their work on the brushes they enjoy using. The attention-getting packaging makes these sets great for gift-giving or for just storing brushes. All brush sets come in a slide top wooden box.

*Brush sizes and shapes may vary, but value will always meet or exceed the stated retail value.

Sable Watercolor Point of Purchase Assortment

This beautiful point of purchase display contains multiple sizes of one of our finest sable watercolor brushes. A total of 312 brushes.

NUMBER 999800

Artist's Note:

Don't use watercolor brushes in acrylics or oils and expect them to deliver the same performance afterwards - they won't. You can use watercolor brushes with other mediums, but don't switch back and forth.

Richeson Bagged Brush Sets

A large range of brush sets can be a great assistance to sales and an even greater assistance to the consumer. The newer the artist, the more confusing the brush selection becomes. Brights, flats, rounds, filberts, sables, synthetics . . . "How do you know which one to choose?"

At Jack Richeson & Co., we find it difficult for a customer to purchase a brush that has been sealed in a blister. Our set bags are made so that they may be opened while the customer is testing the brush and then resealed. This assures the consumer of what they are buying. By offering a large selection of inexpensive brush sets, you give the consumer a rare opportunity to try a variety of shapes and sizes at a relatively low cost. When trying to grow a customer base, providing the artist with a low risk choice can gain you a customer and a friend.

The brush sets listed here offer a great selection of brush heads and filament types in both small and large sets. All of these are excellent quality at a modest cost. This provides the artist with a great entry into the world of brush types and uses.
